Training in data protection is recommended for all our staff and volunteers who store and/or use people's information. We will post this Privacy Notice in our buildings. We will review this policy every three years.

Legal Bases for Processing

Our legal bases for processing your data are usually 'legitimate interests' (for activities related to the everyday functioning of the church) [GDPR Article 6.1(f)] and 'consent' (for everything else) [Article 6.1(a)]. In a small number of instances we rely on 'contract' (for example, if we are your employer) and 'legal obligation' (for example, in relation to safeguarding issues).

When using 'legitimate interests' as the legal basis for using the information you have given us we will ensure it is for a genuine purpose, necessary for the smooth running of the church family, and not invasive to your privacy. For all other purposes we will ask for your positive consent before processing your details.

We are able to process 'special categories of personal data' (such as your health or religious beliefs) in the course of our legitimate activities because we are a not-for-profit body with a religious aim relating to you as a member, former member, or person with whom we have regular contact [Article 9.2(d)].

Sharing Your Data

Only people appointed to specific roles within the circuit (for example, Ministers and lay staff, pastoral visitors, society/circuit stewards, preachers, treasurers, membership secretaries, children/youth organisation leaders, Safeguarding Designated Person) can access your details, and what they can see is limited to what they need in order to carry out their role.

If you are appointed to a specific role within the life of the church and/or circuit we may publish your details (eg in announcement sheets, annual reports or our web presence) or share them directly so members and other relevant individuals/organisations can contact you. This will cease when you step down from the role.

We occasionally post photographs and/or video taken at church events on our website www.dublincentralmission.ie and/or on Church notice boards.

If you donate money to us using the Irish Charities Donations Scheme we will, after confirming your consent, send details of those gifts to the Revenue Commissioners via DCM Finance Department staff.

We will not share your information with any other third parties without your permission unless we have a legal obligation to do so. However, we may need to share your details within the Methodist Church in Ireland, as follows:

- to comply with our Safeguarding policy when you volunteer with children and vulnerable adults.
- if your role within the Circuit means you need to receive specific information related to that role.
- to process Irish Charities Donations Scheme tax refunds through the Trustees of the Methodist Church in Ireland.

Security and Retention

- All digital files will be stored on computers which are password protected.
- To prevent unauthorised disclosure of your information, our paper-based records are kept in a locked cabinet located in a locked office. Electronic and portable memory devices are protected by passwords or equivalent security measures. Membership software and digital documents containing personal data are either encrypted or password-protected.
- Other than our permanent records (like Membership, Baptism and Marriage Registers, or Church Council/Circuit Executive minutes) or details that need to be kept for legal compliance (such as Safeguarding notes or Gift Aid declarations), we will remove your information from our systems no less than seven years after your last personal contact with us (or seven years after you turn eighteen years old if you are a minor).
- One-off consent forms (such as for annual group membership or bookings for trips etc) will be kept for seven years after the child/youth turns eighteen unless the form is replaced by a more recent one and contains no issues of note.
